A message from our Convenor

What a busy time we've had in April! Bookings for the summer festival are coming in steadily and workshops are filling up quickly. I found The Play for Ukraine evening on Zoom earlier in April an emotional occasion. What a wonderful collection of Ukrainian music. The recording will soon be available. The Lauren Scott live workshop was fun and challenging. What a beautiful piece of music the ten harpists produced in such a short time. A huge thank you to Lauren for her contribution as our Composer in Residence over the past two years. As a result we have three exciting ensemble pieces, Black Sheep, Beatles Medley and Carousel of Dreams. Hopefully we will revisit these pieces before too long and there is a part for every level of player. May will be equally busy with two new events coming up. The 'Spring into Summer' Playing Session on Sat 21st May at Orton is a chance to share favourite pieces with a seasonal theme. Will the amazing displays of bluebells around the countryside inspire you? Later in the month Mary will lead an evening Skills Session on Zoom - Finger Agility. In June Mary is back on Zoom helping us to get the most out of our lap harps. So much to look forward to. Enjoy your harps. Gill

Harps North West Festival 2022 - update

Festival booking now open!

Bookings are open for our Harps North West Festival, running from Friday 29th to Sunday 31st July 2022.

The University of Cumbria Campus, Ambleside is a beautiful part of the Lake District and a wonderful place to enjoy a musical weekend in the summer.

The Festival starts with a concert on the Friday night, and is followed on Saturday and Sunday by a range of workshops and specialist classes from our tutors Jean Altshuler, Mary Dunsford, Lauren Scott and Charlotte Petersen. These range from absolute beginners and youth groups, to Cumbrian music, developing fluidity and playing in ensembles to Gaelic and Scottish tunes. The Festival party and late night session is on Saturday evening (possibly into Sunday?!). Harp related exhibitors and alternative activities (Alexander Technique, Tai Chi and harp care) are scheduled throughout.

If you haven't already found the programme and booking form, these are on the HNW web at <https://harpnorthwest.org.uk/harps-north-west-festival.html>

COVID-19 Guidance Changes

Latest COVID-19 guidance from the Government:

<https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/coronavirus-covid-19/self-isolation-and-treatment/when-to-self-isolate-and-what-to-do/>

The government has removed domestic restrictions in England and free tests are now only available to vulnerable groups. There are still steps you can take to reduce the risk of catching and spreading COVID-19: Get vaccinated, let fresh air in if meeting indoors, or meet outside, consider wearing a face covering in crowded, enclosed spaces. If you have symptoms of COVID-19, try to stay at home and avoid contact with other people.

NEWS of Recent HNW Events

Play for Ukraine

In the spirit of 'Harps for Harmony', Harps North West came together to Play for Ukraine via Zoom on Tuesday 12th April. The primary purpose was to show our support for the Ukrainian people through playing and sharing their wonderful music and to encourage donations to charities supporting the Ukrainian people.

Our play list included 10 Ukrainian tunes or highly relevant pieces that have been arranged and shared by fellow harpists. We had many guest harpists joining us, some leading their own arrangements. Thank you to the arrangers for sharing this music with us and to those who led other pieces.

The comments we have received show how well received and emotional the session was.

"A huge thanks to everyone involved for the lovely event last night - it was very moving and I was so glad and honoured to be able to share a piece with everyone!"

In case anyone is interested, here are some links to other versions of the piece 'Verbova doshchekka' (I hope I spelt that right - there seem to be two transliterations...!) and a wikipedia article with a few verses; clearly there are more if you listen to the vocal duet version but I've not found a translation of them all - I'd love to know more if anyone knows any Ukrainian speakers!"

"There are many others on youtube that are well worth a look, it's such a gorgeous tune." Tamsin D.

"Thanks for inviting me! I loved playing along, meeting your folks and learning some gorgeous tunes." Rebecca Root, USA

"I want to thank you and everyone else for putting on this event. It was wonderful. I felt quite emotional." Ian L.

"It felt good to be part of such a special event, with such lovely music and a beautiful pervading spirit: I thought your introduction was very touching, and the whole thing seemed to flow smoothly (obviously well organised). Thanks for inviting me to be part of it: obviously, I felt very honoured to be playing with HNW!" Best wishes. Jeff C

"A big thank you to everyone who contributed to tonight's Harps for Ukraine. I really appreciate the hard work in both the organisation of the evening and those taking the time to both contribute the arrangements and lead the playing. Beautiful music that I will continue to play. I, and I'm sure many others, are horrified at the war in Ukraine. Apart from donations of money it is difficult to demonstrate support for all those suffering in such an unimaginable situation .

Music truly is an international language and if even one person in Ukraine hears our contribution I hope it gives some comfort."

Very best wishes, Linda D.

"Well done for thinking about and organising last night I thought it went well and people were glad to have a focus. Oliver (flautist) was very pleased to have been asked to take part and said what a lovely friendly bunch HNW were." Ann W

"Thank you for organising such a beautiful, moving and emotional musical evening." Kath W.

"A big thank you for yesterday evening, and for sharing some of the wonderful music from this besieged country." Annie J.

More Ukrainian music links from Annie J.

Here are some others who are sharing and creating beautiful, poignant music from their country:

Alina Bzhezhininska who created a wonderful arrangement of a traditional piece, which she wrote when Crimea was invaded and circulated through HCA last week <https://harpcolumn.com/academy/learn-a-ukrainian-tune-2/>. There will be an open video available on the HCA site.

Keziah Thomas (UKHA) has written a wonderful piece (<https://www.keziah.co.uk/shop>) Everything Started with Music, which is available to buy from her site. There is a video on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0jRKqs20B5E>.

Carousel of Dreams (夢の回轉木馬), Workshop with Lauren Scott. Third composition for HNW during Lauren's time as Composer in Residence.

Last weekend ten members of Harps North West enjoyed learning and playing Lauren's third composition for HNW live. It was good to meet Lauren in person after all the Zoom sessions we have had with her. Heartfelt thanks to Lauren from all at HNW for the wonderful pieces she has shared with us; Black Sheep, Beatles Medley, Carousel of Dreams and also Freshwater Tears. The video recording of Carousel of Dreams played on the day is available at <https://youtu.be/CqxFDYzQnSY>.

Carousel of Dreams is a beautiful piece inspired by Japanese animations. Harp 1 is the trickiest part, Harps 2 and 3 are easily accessible.

*Audio recording, including slower speed for practice - Lauren Scott has created a page on her website which she is kindly allowing us to share with members of Harps North West. So on the page (link below) is an audio recording of the whole piece. Further down the page there are three practice audios. These are the three sections at a slower speed with a click added, so hopefully they should be helpful for people to use for practice. HNW members should already have received the sheet music.

A message from Lauren:

'I've really enjoyed my time as the HNW composer in residence. It's been a real joy, and so helpful for my creative development. Thank you so much for having me and letting me have free rein to be creative. It's been an amazing experience for me and wonderful to get to know you all. Lauren x'

"We had a lovely afternoon up at Threlkeld with Lauren Scott playing her third and final piece for HNW as our Composer in Residence. Her inspiration was from Japanese Manga as an antidote to all the tragic news at the moment. The piece is written in three parts with a very catchy rhythm and use of xylophonics and a lovely light, pretty music-box style theme on top. It is a really fun piece to play, which I hope we can revisit, perhaps at the Festival in July.

In light of the Japanese theme I asked my son (who is a translator) to provide a translation of the title - 夢の回轉木馬 (literally, dream carousel - uses kanji for carousel but the meaning is closer to merry-go-round than carousel)". Ann Woolley

"I decided to join this workshop because I felt I needed the experience of playing with others as I don't really enjoy doing this on Zoom. So I put my name on the list and waited for the music to arrive a couple of days before. It came and was in 3 parts with xylophonic notes! Well they looked interesting and I had to look them up online to find out what they were and luckily Josh Layne had a tutorial as part of his 'Harp Tuesday' tutorials. So I practiced harp 2 for a couple of quick 20 minute sessions and hoped I was prepared. When I arrived and met Lauren she set my mind at rest and had a go on my harp too. Then we started; well in a nutshell, I was a bit like Eric Morecambe's famous remarks to Andre Previn "I'm playing all the right notes but not necessarily in the right order." However, what I learnt was invaluable to me. Firstly, that HNW has some very supportive players, so thanks to the ladies who played harp 2 and also counted out the timing for me when I couldn't play one section in time.

Thank you to Jane B from Birmingham who stayed for coffee afterwards and gave me some very good tips and advice and encouraged me tremendously. (I took her advice and enrolled on Deborah's 'Baroque Flamenco' and really enjoyed playing day 1 yesterday.) Lastly, many thanks to Lauren who saw I was struggling and came over to encourage me and whose music was wonderful. It was an absolute joy to be part of its first performance. If you, like me, think you are not good enough to play with more experienced players, my advice is don't hesitate, it was a workshop and those are for learning and yes, for making mistakes but that is normal. I hope to play part 2 again in the near future with HUN (Harps Up North). Lyn Armstrong

"I really enjoyed the season with Lauren Scott the pace was not too fast and it was good to work on sections before playing with the group. Having the music before hand meant I knew the level.

Even though I had a loooooong drive from the Midlands it was certainly worth it. She even had time to give me some hints on one of her pieces that I am learning". Jane Beauchamp

"I'm so glad I made time for this workshop. In a very hectic weekend it was an oasis of calm and delight. What a joy to play in parts with other harpists especially Lauren's lovely piece especially composed for us! The three parts were well graded in difficulty and while I could have managed the hard part with practice, I picked an easier part so I could relax and enjoy the parts fitting together. The two hours flew past. So great to have a live workshop. Thanks to HNW for making it happen and for all your hard work." Judy Sharps

'Music for the Soul'

We encountered the artist Hideyuki Sobue at Allan Bank on our monthly foray to play for the visitors and staff. He is painting a huge mural on the stairwell of an Ash tree. He explained it is symbolic of the natural environment as championed by Beatrix Potter, one of the founders of the National Trust, and also has links with William Wordsworth who used to live in the house. We played while he painted and he was kind enough to say it was 'music for the soul'. We also had a small visitor refer to the harps as 'princess music'! We completely agree of course and will be practising our Princess waves in future along with our harp technique.

If any HNW members are visiting Allan Bank between 11 and 12.30 on the following Tuesdays, please come in and say hello - dates in the link below. Ann Woolley & Carol Coldwell
